

Building Contemplative ecclesial communities out of contextual mission, 16th May 2011

Timing	Who	Form & Title	Where
09.30- 10.00	Team	Tea and Coffee reception & Sign up for Workshops & Seminars	Church of St Edmund the King
10.00 – 10.05	Ian Mobsby	Explanation of the day and the two sites St Edmund the King – Refreshments & Some Workshops St Mary Woolnoth – Addresses & Some Workshops	Church of St Edmund the King
10.00 – 10.08	Ken Browne	Welcome from the London Centre for Spirituality	Church of St Edmund the King
10.08 – 10.13		Walk from Bookshop to St Mary Woolnoth	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
10.13 – 10.30	Philip Roderick	Worship: Opening Contemplative worship	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
10.30 – 10.33	Ian Adams	Introduction of the three speakers	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
10.33 – 10.53	David Cherry	Address: The importance of Christian spirituality as a vehicle for mission	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
10.54 – 11.14	Ian Mobsby	Address: The Trinity as Christian Spirituality and forms of the church	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
11.15 – 11.35	Ian Adams	Address: Post-secular spiritual questers – an opportunity for mission	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
11.35 – 11.40		Silence	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
11.40 – 11.55	Speakers	Questions to speakers from attenders	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
11.55 – 12.00		Walk back to Church of St Edmund the King	Church of St Edmund the King
12.00 – 12.15		Tea and Coffee Break	Church of St Edmund the King
12.15 – 13.00	Workshops
	Tessa Holland	Workshop 2: Rhythms of Life – what they are and how they assist mission and community - Choir Stalls (One side)	Church of St Edmund the King
	Vanessa Elston	Workshop 3: Mission and the Spirit of the Age – Choir stalls	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
	Aaron Kennedy	Workshop 4: Catechesis, discipleship and spiritual practices – Front of the Church	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
	Ken Browne	Workshop 5: Spiritual Direction and Spiritual Seekers - Vestry	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
	Ian Adams	Workshop 6: Cave, Refectory, Road – Being Christian as a 21 st century contemplative
	Pauline Warner	Workshop 7: Helping spiritual seekers to discern God out of mystical experience – Back of Church	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
	Mark Berry	Workshop 8: Human Becoming - Missio Trinitatis, mission and God Back of Church	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
13.00 – 14.00		Lunch – refreshments available at St Edmund the King	Church of St Edmund the King
14.00 – 14.20	Tessa Holland	Address: An exploration of the apostolic dimension of the contemplative way	Church of St Mary Woolnoth

14.25 – 15.20	Dialogue Groups
	Tessa Hollland	Dialogue Group 1: How might contemplative praxis inform the mission of the local church? – Choir Stalls	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
	Ian Mobsby	Dialogue Group 2: How to enable people to realise that the interior world is the threshold for mission? – Hall	Church of St Edmund the King
	Aaron Kennedy	Dialogue Group 3: How do we encourage more men to be interested in spirituality? - Hall	Church of St Edmund the King
	Vanessa Elston	Dialogue Group 4: How can Contemplative Christians draw on the first 3 steps of the 12 step course to resource mission and discipleship? – Front of Church	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
	Mark Berry	Dialogue Group 5: How do New Monastics engage with spiritual seekers effectively? – Vestry	Church of St Edmund the King
	Ian Adams	Dialogue Group 6: What languages do Christians need to learn to engage with the spirituality of the age? - Choir Stalls	Church of St Edmund the King
	Philip Roderick	Dialogue Group 7: How do you begin to build a contemplative missional community where you are? – Upstairs Room 2	Church of St Edmund the King
	Pauline Warner	Dialogue Group 8: How do we enable people to shift from being individualistic mystical questers to co travelling pilgrims – Upstairs Room 1	Church of St Edmund the King
15.25 – 15.35		Tea & Coffee Break St Edmund the King	Church of St Edmund the King
15.40 – 16.00	Philip Roderick Tessa Holland	Final Worship & Blessing	Church of St Mary Woolnoth
16.00	Ian Adams & Ian Mobsby	Final thanks and End	Church of St Mary Woolnoth

LOCATION: CHURCH OF ST MARY WOOLNETH & CHURCH OF ST EDMUND THE KING
(Exit 6 from Bank Tube)

CHURCH OF ST EDMUND THE KING

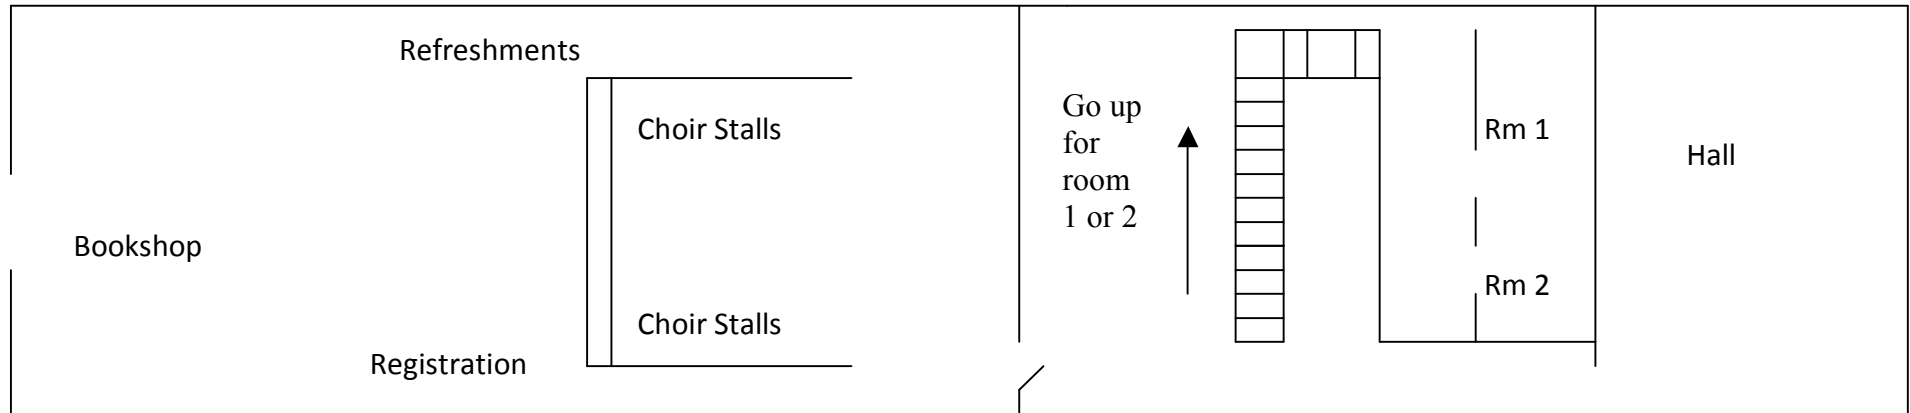

Please arrive here at beginning of day
And for refreshments & some workshops and dialogue groups

CHURCH OF ST MARY WOOLNETH

Please go here for Addresses, Worship, some workshops and dialogue groups

LOCATIONS FOR WORKSHOPS AND DIALOGUE GROUPS

CHURCH OF ST EDMUND THE KING

CHURCH OF ST MARY WOOLNOTH

